the Roe V. Wade decision, to be the Sanctity of Life Sunday. On this day, we especially observe and reaffirm the Orthodox Church's unwavering stance to the sanctity of human life at all levels, and we will offer special petitions, prayers, and a message from His Beatitude Met. Jonah. Over 300,000 people gathered in Washington DC this past Friday. Let us pray that God would grant to the people of this nation the will to do good, to flee from evil, and to practice all righteousness, making us respectful of life and sharers of His blessings.

New Book Club: We will continue our Winter Book Club selection: "O Death, where is thy sting?" Reflections on death from an Orthodox Christian perspective by Fr. Alexander Schmemmann. Sessions are Wednesdays at 7:15 pm. See Symeon Jekel for more information!

New Serbian Patriarch: We offer our prayers and congratulations to our brothers and sisters of the Serbian Orthodox Church on the election of their 45th Serbian Patriarch, Irinej the Bishop of Nis this past Friday. May God Grant Him Many Years of fruitful service to the Orthodox Church! Axios! Eis polla eti Dhespota!

Theophany House Blessings: Father will be continuing to bless homes through Great Lent. If you are still interested in having your home blessed this year, and have not signed up, please see Father this morning during Fellowship Hour. For those who have already signed up, Father will then contact you to schedule your appointment. If at all possible, please find a time where the whole family is present. Father would like to spend some time with each family to catch up and to listen to any concerns or suggestions to benefit the life of our community.

Help for Haiti: at the request of His Grace Bishop Tikhon, we will be assembling "emergency health kits" to be sent to the IOCC to further the relief effort to aid the people affected by the recent devastating earthquakes in Haiti. We will be collecting items for the health kits, and monetary donations to purchase items for the "clean-up buckets" they have requested. Dana Diehl will be saying a few words about our parish effort during the announcements this morning.

Christ the Saviour Parish Annual Super Bowl Party will be held Sunday, February 7th at 5pm. It is sponsored by the CTS Men's Club. The game will be shown on three TV sets and one projector. There will be a buffet-style meal. Cost is $8 for Adults; Children 12 and under are FREE. Everyone is welcome! Please contact Christ the Saviour office if you are interested in coming so they can prepare. Thank You!
