a sudden illness. We offer our prayers and support to Nancy and her family during this difficult time. Special prayers will be offered for his soul in this morning's liturgy. May our beloved Robert's memory be eternal!

This Month's Charity Collection will go to benefit Caroline Schonewolf and her family. Eight years ago last month, Caroline's husband died after struggling with cancer, leaving her with two young boys. Caroline suffers from Multiple Sclerosis and can only walk very short distances without tiring. In November of 2008, she suffered from an attack that severely incapacitated her ability to do basic cleaning, etc. She's fairing better now but is growing weaker as time goes on. Recently to make matters worse, the air conditioning in their home broke down, and with the high temperatures, MS can become more inflamed and cause great discomfort to those suffering. Please be generous in your offering today for this worthy cause.

His Grace Bishop Tikhon will be with us next weekend (June 19-20). His Grace will help us close out our 5th Anniversary year on the 6th Anniversary to the day of the first Liturgy. On Saturday evening, (6/19), following Vespers, His Grace will give a presentation on the Book of Jonah that will be broadcasted live online. This is a new program our bishop has initiated to use modern technology to further the message of the Gospel. Mark your calendars and join us! Bring a lenten snack to share if you like.

Jubilee Day 2010: There will be an organizational meeting for Jubilee Day
